ENGLISH

Total Marks: 25Time: 30 minutes*SECTION-A*(READING)A.1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :[5]

1. Disability refers to any kind of physical or mental incapacity that limits a person's ability to work. Millions of people suffer from hearing, vision or speech impairment, mental retardation, and a wide range of other problems.

2. Yet, it is seldom that we thank God for the gift of good health and well being. The smallest actions like seeing the sunrise, brushing our teeth, tying our laces, popping peanuts into our mouth come so naturally and effortlessly yet we are never satisfied but always discontented. It is not so for the disabled. For them, it requires immense concentration, effort, will power, energy, and a lot of time to do these simplest things of life.

3. It takes great courage and determination to cope with a disability. We can make life easier for them by becoming more sensitive to their handicap, their needs, and their problems.

Respect them for what they are; understand that they can never be completely independent. To insist that a disabled child can be independent would be a form of oppression.

4. The feeling of pity and undue sympathy will only shake their confidence. Give them encouragement, facilities and resources and then watch them as they learn, earn, play, work and even start their families. What we need to understand is that they too are human beings. They have thoughts, ideas, wishes, hopes, ambitions, emotions and feelings, just like anyone else. They can become good friends. What they need are more friends.

5. Very often we find that a person lacking in one faculty is gifted in some other way. That's nature's way of maintaining a balance. Some of the most beautiful greeting cards are made by the disabled children, using a hand, a foot, or even the mouth. Nothing stops them for using their talent, intelligence, and their knowledge.

A Day At Sea

As the ocean waves at me,
 And the sand greets the sea,

 Between my shoeless toes,
 Then the tide flows over them,
 And back down it goes.

The salt is on my tongue,
 The sea's song is sung,
 The sun is going down,
 And so my day at sea is done.
